This is an upper level supervisory clerical position responsible for the planning, assigning and review of account keeping and financial record keeping activities of a clerical staff assigned to a unit or department. Employees of this class independently develop financial reports requiring the collection and computation of data obtained from numerous accounts and records. The work performed may involve substantial use of an automated or manual account keeping system. General supervision or lead supervision is exercised over a clerical staff.

Scope of Examination: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

1. Fundamentals of account keeping and bookkeeping

These questions test for a knowledge of basic principles and practices of account keeping and bookkeeping. The questions test for recognizing account keeping and bookkeeping terms, concepts and relationships; recording financial transactions; and solving elementary problems in account keeping and bookkeeping.

2. Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.
